All our trainings come with a total satisfaction guarantee!

Please note that the above offers exclude all other offers. If you have been rewarded with Qt Loyalty vouchers you are welcome to use up to $100 worth of Qt Loyalty vouchers towards this workshop. We welcome substitutions (only other Qt Graduates) in your place should you be unable to attend the workshop, simply let us know 7 days prior to the start of the event. Please advise any cancellations or transfers at least 30 days prior to the start of the event. Your investment in this workshop is transferable, however it is un refundable if you change your mind or are a "no show". The investment is transferable to other Qt programs and events when notified at least 30 days prior to the start of the event. Should you attend this workshop for free by booking into one of our abovementioned trainings, then change your mind about attending that subsequent training, you agree to also pay the full investment for this workshop. Thank you.
